Greenwich Selectman David N. Theis Endorses Chris Meek for Congress

STAMFORD, Conn. – Greenwich Selectman David N. Theis has joined the growing list of people who have endorsed Chris Meek for Congress.

“Chris Meek doesn't just talk about problems, he solves them,” said Theis. “I have seen firsthand what he has accomplished in the community and Chris' efforts have helped keep people in their homes. Chris is exactly the type of practical, hands-on leader we need representing the 4th District in Washington.”

Meek, a father of three, lives in Stamford with his wife Christine and their children.

“To have a dedicated public servant like David Theis support our campaign is humbling and brings us closer to defeating our opponent in November,” Meek said.

Theis' endorsement joins a growing list of prominent people supporting Chris Meek in his bid to become the 4th District's congressman. Already supporting Meek are former Lieutenant Governor Mike Fedele, State Representative Terrie Wood (R-141), State Representative Livvy Floren (R-149), State Representative Mike Molgano (R-144) and Assistant Republican Leader in the Connecticut House of Representatives DebraLee Hovey (R-112).
